

UW-Madison Center for Global Health Fourth Annual Symposium

Global Health and Human Rights

"Health Care and Human Rights: The World Cannot Wait"

Keynote Speaker: Florence Chenoweth, MS, PhD

Managing Director, UW Human Rights Initiative

Former U.N. Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO) representative in Gambia and South Africa

Former Executive Director of the FAO Liaison office in New York

Rescheduled from February 6

Wednesday, March 5

5:00-9:00pm

Everyone is welcome to attend this exciting event! Attendance is free of charge and no registration is required.

UW faculty, staff, students and community members are engaged in an exciting array of global health activities. Come to learn about current initiatives in Brazil, China, Mexico, Cambodia, Pakistan, Kenya, Ghana and other countries, and to network with colleagues.

Following the keynote address participants may choose from 25 presentations in 5 concurrent panels.

Health Sciences
Learning Center
1306

A lively celebration with refreshments and entertainment will follow

After 4:30pm
FREE PARKING is available in
LOT 76

(parking ramp by Nielsen Tennis Stadium)

Sponsored by the Center for Global Health, an initiative of the UW-Madison Schools of Medicine and Public Health, Nursing, Pharmacy, Veterinary Medicine, and Division of International Studies. Co-sponsored by the UW Global Health Interest Group. For more information contact Betsy Teigland at 262-3862, teigland@wisc.edu

Center for Global Health